

University of Lowell

Office of Public Relations

---

One University Avenue, Lowell, Massachusetts 01854      Telephone: (617) 452-5000

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Paul F. Marion

BLACK HERITAGE MONTH AT U. LOWELL

LOWELL, MASS. - A series of events celebrating Black Heritage Month has been planned at the University of Lowell as the first program in the 1980 Ethnic Symposia.

February 3, at 4:00 PM, the Black Heritage Committee presents A Proclamation Ceremony and The Beulah Pierce Memorial Concert in Durgin Hall, located on Wilder Street, Lowell. Beulah Pierce was a member of the first Black Heritage Committee at U. Lowell. The performers are Rawn Spearman, Charles Wright, The Bethel A.M.E. Youth Choir, Faith Unlimited, the Fort Devens Gospel Choir, and the New England Church of God Concert Choir. A donation of $2.50 is requested and a reception follows the concert.

A Black World Cuisine Festival is set for February 8, 3:00 - 8:00 PM, in the U. Lowell south campus cafeteria on Wilder Street, Lowell. A variety of foods prepared by committee members will be on sale.

Additional activities are planned later in the month, such as a lecture on Civil Rights in the 1980's and a public session on consumerism. The 4th Annual Black Heritage Dinner Ball at the Merrimack Valley Motor Inn, North Andover, will be held March 1, at 6:30 PM. Tickets are $12.50.

For more information contact the University of Lowell Public Relations Office at 452-5000, extension 2219.